

Carley Varley

Carley Varley is a fresh new Singer-Songwriter from Bournemouth who is fast becoming one of the most exciting breakthrough artists in the South today.

Mixing pop with edgier indie elements, Carley is a standout vocalist with crystal clear delivery. Her performances are joyful events where she brings her effervescent personality to the stage with songs that audiences delight in singing along to.

Carley's 2021/22 singles, 'Going Under', 'Miss Me?' and 'Fall' have been featured on BBC Introducing. Carley was also interviewed about her advice vlog 'CVLOG', which aims to help new musicians.

Carley has been songwriting and playing the guitar and piano since the age of fourteen. In 2016 she was spotted busking in the quaint seaside town of Lymington on the south coast and was soon catapulted onto the stages at The Ritz and The Waldorf in London. Carley and her guitar have been regulars on the Dorset and Hampshire music scene ever since.

Press and Reviews

"I have seen Carley move in the right direction. Her writing is improving more and more, and her musical universe is being refined. Her voice too, more confident, but what I will remember the most is her authenticity. Pearls like Carley, are not found very much in a lifetime."
- Indie Music Centre

Carley Varley is a rare talent in that what you see on stage - A beautiful, kind, thoughtful songwriter - is exactly who she is off stage also. An amazing person to know and to listen to.
-Matt Black (Hangover Hill)

Amazing singer & songwriter she is a breath of fresh air in the local music scene. I'm sure she will go far and she will always be in demand for our events!
-Ben Dyas (Festival Organiser)
